- C. Both the Network and the Association have similar aims.
- D. They wish to work together but not so as to form any legally binding relationship.
- E. They wish to record by this document how they intend to work together as follows:

TERMS OF THE CONTRACT

1. Where either the Network or the Association has work in a jurisdiction where it is not represented, they will ask the other Network or Association to ask its member in the country where that work is to recommend someone to do that work. If it is legal work the recommendation will be to an appropriate law firm or if it is accountancy and audit work it will be to an appropriate accountancy firm and where appropriate both a legal and an accountancy firm. The same will apply to business advisory work.
When both Associations have a Member in the same country or city, preference will be given to internal Members, before requesting support from Alliance Associates or Members.
2. The signatories cannot be held liable for the actions of each of their members.
3. The signatories shall refrain from entering into any financial relations between the members of both organizations.
4. To attend, if convenient and only by specific invitation, one another's meetings, particularly General Meetings, as appropriate, with a view to making presentations at such meetings and networking. To consider joint training sessions and attending each other's training sessions, if convenient and only by specific invitation.

5. To share written material, including publications and statistical information of International Accounting Magazines, recognizing the other Association/Network.
6. The Alliance is established as exclusive only for reporting the information to International Accounting Magazines, but leaving each party free of having Members or Alliances in any country of the World, subject to Clause 10.
7. To announce the Strategic Alliance in both websites of each Association, as follows:

In the Strategic Alliances Area of both websites, a link will be included to the other counterpart's website. This will not include a listing of individual firms in the counterpart's site and will merely highlight that an alliance is in place.

8. To work together in order to enhance the relationship between the Association and the Network, but always having regard to D. above, including carrying out such other activities as may be conducive to working together in accordance with the spirit of this Strategic Alliance Contract.

9. Each signatory shall nominate his representative and inform the other party Thereof:

KUDOS nominates his President, Michael Scott, and UC&CS GLOBAL nominates his President, Mauricio Mobarak.

10. The term of this agreement shall be one year renewable for further terms of one calendar year by tacit agreement every year.

Each party may cancel this agreement subject to a written notice period of 60 days in advance of the date of termination.

This contract is the entire agreement between the Associations and supercedes any prior agreements, oral or written, and rescinds any previous offers, promises or agreements. The parties are bound to each other only by the terms contained in this writing and any subsequent writings signed and agreed to heretoforth.

Signed
